MINI CV:

Simen Myrberget started to work as a photographer 17 years of age (1987). After two years he participated in an international photo contest for Mazda and was awarded "first prize winner". This was published in National Graphics and Newsweek. In 1991 he continued to work with photography on daytime and in the evenings he went to the "Oslo Film og Tv Akademi" learning the craft of film and tv production. Later he started Kreateam (a small company in Oslo producing over 100 short films for web, some information films and a few advertisement films). Kreateam did also produce the advertisement movie for "Hifiklubben" which was screened nationwide on cinemas and some advertisement films which was broadcasted on national tv stations.

Kreateam offers services like: photography, music video production, webfilm production, advertisement movies and workshops in Photoshop and digital photography, professional retouching etcetera).

Simen Myrberget has been filming, directing, producing and editing more than 30 short films (30-90 sec.) (in some of these films only doing the online editing and in some films like for Tine Melk doing the filming, directing, editing and producing). Simen Myrberget has been involved in projects for firms or artists) like: Schwarzkopf, Apple Computers, Warner Home Video, Universal, Ringnes, Hydro, Tine Norske Meierier, Tusenfryd, Oslo Spektrum, visitnorway.com, Tv 2, Oystein Sevag, and soforth.

Today he also offers workshops teaching film making for web, digital photography and Photoshop. He is currently involved with making a short film for World Peace Gardens as an altruistic contribution for peace and also working on music videos filming with 35 mm digital quality cameras.
